A SURGEON'S KNIFE

gives you a feeling of horror and dread. There is no longer necessity for the use of many diseases formerly regarded as incurable without cutting. The Triumph of Conservative Surgery is well illustrated by the fact that RUPTURE or Hernia, is now repaired without the use of the knife and without pain. Clumsy, charlatan surgeons are thrown away. They never cure but often induce inflammation, suppuration and death. TUMORS (Ovarian, Fibroid, Uterine) and many others, are now removed without the use of cutting operations. PILE TUMORS, however large, PILES, Hemorrhoids, and other diseases of the lower bowel, are permanently cured without pain or resort to the knife. STONE in the Bladder, no matter how large, is crushed, pulverized, washed out and perfectly removed without cutting. STRICTURE of Urinary Passage is also removed without cutting. In hundreds of cases, for pamphlet, references and all particulars, send 10 cents in stamps to World's Dispensary Medical Association, 600 Main St., Buffalo, N. Y.

Tied to a Maniac.

Three miners from Angels' Camp were in Stockton, Cal., recently. They stayed at the Commercial Hotel, and during the day met several old-time acquaintances. In the afternoon one of the trio suggested a trip through the State insane asylum.

"Excuse me, I prefer to stay out there," said the smallest man of the three, a man who would probably weigh about 120 pounds.

"Six or seven years ago I was working a placer claim up in Placer county, on the American river," he said. "I formed a partnership with a powerful Italian called 'Macaroni Mike.' He was a big fellow, weighed at least 250 pounds, and was as strong as an ox team. Macaroni was known to have killed 750 pounds dead weight from the ground and placed it in a wagon. He was a great partner, as cheerful as a school girl about to graduate. But Macaroni fell in love, and the object of his big, manly heart was a little French girl, the daughter of a miner.

"Macaroni thought all was right, when one morning in early summer he learned that his little sweetheart had skipped to Sacramento with a young grocer from Michigan. Bluff and got married. From that time on he was queer, but was not violent until about a month later, when one evening, while we were eating bacon, beans and trout, Macaroni suddenly sprang from his chair, and yelling 'I'll kill the man!' dashed wildly up the trail from the river in the direction of Forest Hill.

We found Macaroni about ten o'clock that night seated on a fallen log, his huge body swaying from side to side, and he moaning like a wounded bear. Being my partner, it was thought best that I should first approach and see if I could manage him. I did so, and to my happy surprise I found that he had become very quiet and talked quite rationally.

"I felt sure Macaroni was himself again. I knew if he endeavored to tie his hands and feet he'd get angry and clean us all out. So I suggested that when he fell asleep they slip a noose of a lariat around one of his ankles and fasten the other end of the rope around my ankle; then should Macaroni awake and attempt to leave us, I'd feel the tug and try to quiet him. They acted on the suggestion, and half an hour later we were all snoring away on the bosom of mother earth.

"About five o'clock in the morning I dreamed I had roped a wild steer, and that my broncho began bucking, and just as I was about to be yanked from the saddle I awoke, to find Macaroni tearing down the hillside and I flying after him. One moment I'd be on my feet, the next on my head, then on my back, then rolling sideways, then over again I'd go, expecting every bump to be my last. When I got my senses again I was in my cabin, a mass of bruises and cuts from head to foot."

"Where's Macaroni?" I asked.

"Guess he's in Stockton, George," replied my miner attendant. "He'd loose from you after dragging your two hundred yards down the hill and through the bush. A week later he was captured in the mountains and finally sent to the asylum at Stockton."

"No, I don't think I'll go to see the inmates of the asylum, I've had enough of lunatics!"—Stockton Mail.

A Household Treasure.

D. W. Fuller, of Canajoharie, N. Y., says that he always keeps Dr. King's New Discovery in the house and his family has always found the very best results from its use. He says that he would not be without it if he could. G. A. Dykeman, Druggist, Catskill, N. Y., says that Dr. King's New Discovery is undoubtedly the best cough remedy; that he has used it in his family for eight years, and it has never failed to do all that is claimed for it. Why not try a remedy so long tried and tested? Try bottles free at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' Drug Store. Regular size 50c and $1.

THE BREATH of a chronic catarrh patient is often so offensive that he becomes an object of disgust. After a time ulceration sets in, the spines bones are attacked, and frequently destroyed. A constant source of discomfort is the dripping of the purulent secretions into the throat, sometimes producing inveterate bronchitis, which is usually the exciting cause of pulmonary disease. The brilliant results by this cure for years past properly designate Ely's Cream Catarrh as by far the best and only cure. Call upon your druggist for it.

Palpitation of the Heart Shortness of Breath, Swelling of Legs and Feet.

"For about four years I was troubled with palpitation of the heart, shortness of breath and swelling of the legs and feet. At times I would faint. I was treated by the best physicians in Savannah, Ga., with no relief. I then tried various Springs without benefit. Finally, I tried Dr. Miles' Heart Cure also his Nerve and Liver Pills. After beginning to take them I felt better. I continued taking them and I am now in better health than for many years. Since my recovery I have gained fifty pounds in weight. I hope this statement may be of value to some poor sufferer."

NOTICE TO CITY TAXPAYERS.

COLLECTOR'S OFFICE, June 20, 1894.

Notice is hereby given that the tax bills for 1894 are now in the hands of the collectors. The attention of parties interested is respectfully called to the following extract from the revenue bill of that year:

"Upon all bills paid in full by the 1st day of July, 1894, the Collectors of Taxes shall allow a discount of ten per cent, and on all bills paid by the 1st day of September, 1894, they shall allow a discount of five per cent, and on all bills not paid on the 1st day of December, 1894, there shall be assessed and collected a penalty of five per cent on the amount of said bills, and on all bills remaining unpaid on the 1st day of June, 1895, damages at the rate of six per centum per annum shall be paid."

Tax payers would do well to call and pay at once in order to avoid the rush and crowd usually present on the last days in which the discount is allowed. Bring a list to make sure you get full for all your property, as the collectors will not be responsible, or allow the discount after the time fixed by law.
